Up to $20,000 for Army recruits who report for training by May 30

FORT KNOX, Ky. – Qualified active Army recruits who are willing to report for training by May 30 may be eligible for seasonal enlistment bonuses up to $14,000, which may be combined with other existing Army bonuses for a total of up to $20,000.

Qualified applicants who enlist in any active Army military occupational specialty for three or more years are now eligible for a seasonal bonus of up to $14,000 if they agree to report to training by May 30. This bonus, available to applicants with and without previous military service, was previously only available for high-priority job specialties.

Recruits who enlist for cash bonuses totaling more than $10,000 will receive their initial payment of $10,000 upon successful completion of initial entry training. The remaining bonus amount will be paid in annual increments. Enlistment bonuses totaling less than $10,000 will be paid in one lump sum upon successful completion of initial entry training.
